The Defamatory Manifesto

133. The Defamatory Manifesto (discussed above at paragraphs 62 to 79 and in Appendix "E" at paragraphs 42 to 65) in its entirety, in its natural and ordinary meaning, including its express and implied meaning in its full context, and/or by innuendo, including in conjunction with the images contained in the Defamatory Manifesto, is false and defamatory of the Plaintiffs. In addition to the natural and ordinary meanings of the statements contained in the Defamatory Manifesto, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Defamatory Manifesto would lead a reasonable reader to conclude, or would mean or would be understood to mean, that Anson and its principals, including Kassam, repeatedly, intentionally and maliciously engaged in unlawful and illegal business practices to destroy, and did destroy or cause harm to, legitimate companies and businesses, including Aphria, Zenabis and Genius Brands International (as defined in Appendix “E”), to increase their financial wealth. The Second Defamatory Manifesto

134. The Second Defamatory Manifesto (discussed above at paragraphs 108 to 112) in its entirety, in its natural and ordinary meaning, including its express and implied meaning in its full context, and/or by innuendo, including in conjunction with the images contained in the Second Defamatory Manifesto, is false and defamatory of the Plaintiffs. In addition to the natural and ordinary meanings of the statements contained in the Second Defamatory Manifesto, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Second Defamatory Manifesto would lead a reasonable reader to conclude, or would mean or would be understood to mean, that Anson and its principals, including Kassam, repeatedly, intentionally and maliciously engaged in unlawful and illegal business practices to destroy, and did destroy or cause harm to, legitimate companies and businesses in order to increase their financial wealth, including Zoom, Facedrive, GSX Techedu, Genius Brands International, Gamestop, RECO, Valorem Resources, Starr Peak Mining, Whole Earth Brands, United Lithium, Mountain Valley MD Holdings, SOL Global, Clean Power Capital Corp, Red White & Bloom, Moderna, Medivolve, AMM Power, Value Line, Champignon Brands, Madmen, and Zenabis. Stafford Unlawful Stockhouse Statements

135. The Stafford Unlawful Stockhouse Statements (discussed above at paragraph 106 and in Appendix “E” at paragraph 93) in their entirety, in their natural and ordinary meaning, including their express and implied meaning in their full context, and/or by innuendo, are false and defamatory of the Plaintiffs. In addition to the natural and ordinary meanings of the Unlawful Statements contained in the Stafford Unlawful Stockhouse Statements, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Stafford Unlawful Stockhouse Statements would lead a reasonable reader to conclude, or would mean or would be understood to mean, the following regarding Anson and its principals:

- (a) they are corrupt, dishonest, deceptive, duplicitous and cannot be trusted;

- (b) they destroy and/or devalue companies and their shareholders through nefarious means in order to benefit financially;

Robert Lee Doxtator's Defamatory Tweets

136. In addition to the foregoing and as set out below, the Defendant Robert is liable to the Plaintiffs for defamation in relation to a number of tweets he published under the username "Betting Bruiser". The defamatory tweets of which the Plaintiffs are currently aware are included as Appendix "A". They include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (a) as discussed above at paragraph 51(a) an August 25, 2019 tweet from "Betting Bruiser" falsely alleged that the Plaintiffs put out a false report "to manipulate the market so they could cover an already short position";

- (b) as discussed above at paragraph 51(b) another August 25, 2019 tweet from “Betting Bruiser” falsely alleged that the Plaintiffs had “connections to other short sellers and market manipulators” and “historically invested [in] and the death spiral the fund created to cash out their short positions”;
- (c) as discussed above at paragraph 51(c) on August 26, 2019, “Betting Bruiser” published several tweets falsely alleging that the Plaintiffs used a representative on Zenabis’ Board of Directors, Adam Spears, to negatively influence the company’s business decisions, reduce its share price and provide them with inside information/material non-public information;
- (d) as discussed above at paragraph 51(d), a subsequent tweet on August 26, 2019 alleged that Spears was “recording conversations of [Zenabis] management and executives in hopes of Anson blackmailing or using the info for the detriment of the company”;
- (e) as discussed above at paragraph 94, a September 29, 2020 tweet from “Betting Bruiser” falsely alleged that the Plaintiffs use “tactics” that “are simply sleight of hand with the gift of gab”;
- (f) as discussed in Appendix “E” at paragraph 80, in a subsequent tweet on September 30, Robert alleged that the Plaintiffs “use people and don’t pay anyone but themselves”;
- (g) as discussed above at paragraph 101 and in Appendix “E” at paragraph 83, on October 9 Robert published a series of tweets, falsely alleging a “toxic financing deal” involving Anson’s legal counsel, that Anson Funds investors ought to “be prepared to have [their] funds locked up” given the information indicating “scams to benefit...Kassam” and allegations “he broke the law”, threatening to “speak to regulators about Anson Funds” to collect a reward, and falsely alleging that the Plaintiffs pay Ben Axler;

- (h) as discussed in Appendix “E” at paragraph 87, on October 30, Robert published tweets alleging that Kassam is “running scared from recent reports about his tactics” and “the scum of the earth”, and that he has others do “his dirty work for him”.

137. These tweets, in their natural and ordinary meaning, including their express and implied meaning, and/or by innuendo, are false and defamatory of the Plaintiffs. In addition to the plain and ordinary meaning of each of the tweets, they would lead a reasonable reader to conclude, or would mean or would be understood to mean, that Anson and its principals, including Kassam:

- (a) are liars, are dishonest, duplicitous, immoral, deceptive, unscrupulous, unethical, sneaky, and cannot be trusted;
- (b) engage in unlawful and illegal conduct, including securities law and/or criminal law violations, and including insider trading, market manipulation, abusive trading practices and fraud; and
- (c) destroy legitimate businesses through nefarious means for their financial gain.

138. Additionally, the October 9 series of Tweets, in addition to their plain and ordinary meaning, would lead readers to conclude, or would mean or would be understood to mean, that Anson and its principals, including Kassam:

- (a) ought to be and will be investigated, including by regulators; and
- (b) will cause harm to their investors.

Jacob Doxtator's Defamatory Tweets

139. In addition to the foregoing and as set out below, the Defendant Jacob is liable to the Plaintiffs for defamation in relation to a number of tweets he published using the alter-ego named "John Murphy" with the username @JohnMur67039142, which are, in their natural and ordinary meaning, including their express and implied meaning, and/or by innuendo, are false and defamatory of the Plaintiffs. The defamatory tweets of which the Plaintiffs are currently aware are included as Appendix "B", and include, but are not limited to, the following:

- (a) as discussed in Appendix "E" at paragraph 28, an August 14, 2020 retweet falsely claimed that Anson was behind the Hindenburg Research report regarding Aphria, included a picture of Kassam, and stated "how dirty moez hurt his business partner [sic] and lied to the founders of $apha [Aphria]. On the same day Jacob also tweeted that Kassam had "paid for negative promotions" regarding Facedrve, Aphria, Tilray "and many more". In addition to the plain and ordinary meaning of these tweets, the tweets would lead a reasonable reader to conclude that Anson and its principals, including Kassam:

- i. are corrupt, dishonest, deceitful, deceptive, duplicitous, and cannot be trusted;
 - ii. engaged in malicious, unlawful, and targeted attacks to harm legitimate companies and their shareholders; and
 - iii. provided false, fraudulent, or misleading information about legitimate companies (including Aphria, Facedrive and Tilray) for publication and dissemination to harm them;
- (b) as discussed above at paragraph 64, a September 10, 2020 tweet stated that regulators should scrutinize Anson and Kassam: “these reverse pump and dumps must be watched more closely by the regulators. moez [sic] and his band fund these trades every week...” In addition to the plain and ordinary meaning of the tweet, the tweet would lead a reasonable reader to conclude that Anson and its principals, including Kassam:
- i. engage in unlawful and illegal activities, including securities law violations; and
 - ii. ought to be investigated, including by regulators;
- (c) as discussed above at paragraph 65 and in Appendix “E” at paragraph 79, a September 12, 2020 tweet alleged “anson [sic] is a very corrupt cad fund nake [sic] shorting many small cap co's and when they get in trouble / want to cover they pay groups like @HindenburgRes to say the co is a fraud and going to zero. how many zeros have they called. the bottom is normally around when the piece comes out". On September 29, he added, "big difference from shorting a fraud and paying for a short report calling a company a fraud to try and fix your trade. bad companies need to be taken down. big difference between the two. anson does both! [sic]". In addition to the plain and ordinary meaning of these tweets, the tweets would lead a reasonable reader to conclude that Anson and its principals, including Kassam:

- i. are corrupt, reckless and dishonest; and
 - ii. provide false, fraudulent, or misleading information about legitimate companies to harm those companies and benefit themselves; and
- (d) as discussed in Appendix "E" at paragraphs 78 and 82, two September 29, 2020 tweets included a link to the Defamatory Manifesto, and stated: "stockmanipulators.com. Cyber crimes added to the list of wrongdoings by @AnsonGroupFunds ? who funded this defense? Unit holders?", and "sounds like #moez attacked the site where the @AnsonGroupFunds report was profiled. a very expensive DDOS attack to prevent the public from seeing the piece. Investors in the fund probably have plenty of questions for @MunchingMoez @davidmilstead $apha $fd $shrm many more". In addition to the plain and ordinary meaning of these tweets, these tweets

would lead a reasonable reader to conclude that Anson and its principals, including Kassam:

- i. engage in illegal and unlawful activities, including criminal law violations and are criminals;
- ii. are dishonest and deceptive; and
- iii. misuse investor funds, including for their personal benefit.

140. Jacob is also liable for using the “John Murphy” Twitter account to re-tweet other Twitter users’ false and defamatory statements about the Plaintiffs.

The Unsolicited Emails are Defamatory

141. As discussed above at paragraph 92 and in Appendix “E” at paragraphs 73 to 75, the Defendants anonymously sent Unsolicited Emails regarding the Plaintiffs. The Unsolicited Emails, in their entirety, in their natural and ordinary meaning, including their express and implied meaning in their full context, and/or by innuendo, are false and defamatory of the Plaintiffs. In addition to the natural and ordinary meanings of the Unlawful Statements contained in the Unsolicited Emails, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Unsolicited Emails would lead a reasonable reader to conclude, or would mean or would be understood to mean, the following regarding Anson and its principals, including Kassam:

- (a) they engage in wrongdoing, unlawful, illegal, and unethical conduct, including securities law and/or criminal law violations, insider trading, market manipulation, abusive trading practices, fraud and cybercrimes;

- (b) they destroy legitimate businesses through nefarious means;
- (c) they have robbed shareholders of billions of dollars;
- (d) they are dishonest and cannot be trusted; and
- (e) they are criminals.

142. The Plaintiffs have not seen all of the Unsolicited Emails or any of the emails in their entirety and reserve their right to amend this pleading to add additional meanings and/or claims once they are discovered.

The Defendants were Malicious

143. The Defendants acted with malice: they made, assisted with, participated in and/or publicized the Unlawful Statements, knowing that the Unlawful Statements were false or misleading and/or while intentionally, recklessly or callously disregarding their falsity and the harm that the allegations would do to the Plaintiffs. They acted for the predominant purposes of harming the Plaintiffs, including in pursuit of their animus and vendetta against the Plaintiffs. Examples of the Defendants' malicious conduct include the following:

- (a) the Defamatory Manifesto, the Second Defamatory Manifesto, the Additional Unlawful Posts and other Unlawful Statements solicited readers to confidentially provide additional material for future Defamatory Manifestos;
- (b) the Second Defamatory Manifesto is nearly 10,000 words – even longer than the original Defamatory Manifesto – and repeated and/or amplified many false and defamatory allegations contained in the Defamatory Manifesto and other Unlawful Statements, and/or elaborated on those allegations and made new and additional false and defamatory allegations against the Plaintiffs;

- (c) Stafford, Rudensky and Robert specifically targeted and maliciously intended to cause harm to the Plaintiffs by writing, publishing, disseminating, and/or procuring the writing, publishing and dissemination of the Defamatory Manifesto and the Second Defamatory Manifesto, including, for Stafford, because of his financial interest in Facedrive and/or RECO. Stafford was directly or indirectly hired to promote these companies and owned a significant number of their shares, and he publicly falsely accused Anson of hiring market participants and media to publish critical commentary on these companies using fabricated material. In fact, market participants and media analysed these companies, using publicly available information, because the companies' inflated share prices were grossly disproportionate to their fundamental value. In well functioning capital markets, it is in the normal course for market participants to comment critically on overvalued companies, and to discuss, share and comment on research, due diligence and investment theses with one another;
- (d) the Defendants' continuous and ongoing efforts to draw the Unlawful Statements to the attention of regulators and the media; and

(e) in addition to publishing the Unlawful Stockhouse Statements in summer 2020, from fall 2020 and continuing to at least spring 2021, the Defendants published, hired others to publish or otherwise procured the publishing of, over 1,000 Further Unlawful Stockhouse Statements, which repeated, amplified and/or elaborated on the false and defamatory allegations contained in the Unlawful Stockhouse Statements, the Defamatory Manifesto, and other Unlawful Statements, and significantly increased the likelihood that such allegations would be re-published by others, as set out below. Stafford also published the Stafford Unlawful Stockhouse Statements using the username “ToffRaffles” between November 2020 and March 2021.

144. The Defendants repeatedly published the Unlawful Statements on various websites and through various means, including through the Unlawful Stockhouse Statements, the Further Unlawful Stockhouse Statements, the Unsolicited Emails, the Defamatory Manifesto, the Second Defamatory Manifesto, the Additional Unlawful Posts, and the tweets described above, in an attempt to publish them to the widest audience possible and cause the greatest possible commercial and emotional harm to the Plaintiffs.

The Defendants are liable for republication of the Unlawful Statements

145. The Defendants are also liable for republication of all of the Unlawful Statements, which was a natural and probable result of the Unlawful Statements given, among other things, the volume of Unlawful Statements published and publicized by the Defendants. In fact, the Defendants actively encouraged republication of the Defamatory Manifesto and Second Defamatory Manifesto, both in the text of the Defamatory Manifesto and Second Defamatory Manifesto themselves, and in Robert's and Jacob's tweets sharing the Defamatory Manifesto. Many of the nearly 1,000 Further Unlawful Stockhouse Statements also actively encouraged the republication of the Defamatory Manifesto and/or other Unlawful Statements. Republications of the Defamatory Manifesto and Second Defamatory Manifesto currently remain online.

F. DAMAGES

146. The Defendants' conduct has caused substantial damage to the Plaintiffs' business and reputations. The Unlawful Statements have been widely distributed and publicized and have been viewed by thousands of people to date. Versions of the Defamatory Manifesto and the Second Defamatory Manifesto remains widely available on the Internet. The Unlawful Statements have significantly interfered with and disrupted the Plaintiffs' business and affairs and their relationship with clients, counterparties, and potential investors, leading to a loss of business opportunities.

147. Moreover, the Plaintiffs have incurred significant costs and spent a significant amount of time investigating who is behind the Conspiracy and in seeking to have the Unlawful Statements removed from various websites.

148. As mentioned above, Anson has also received threatening telephone calls to its offices because of the Unlawful Statements.

149. Particulars regarding damages will be provided in advance of trial.

150. The Plaintiffs also seek an interim, interlocutory and permanent injunction restraining the Defendants from publishing further unlawful and defamatory statements about the Plaintiffs. As noted above, despite Anson's diligent attempts to have the Defamatory Manifesto and Unlawful Stockhouse Statements removed from the Internet, the Defendants persist in acquiring new websites to publish and disseminate the Defamatory Manifesto, the Second Defamatory Manifesto and Additional Unlawful Posts; in repeating the Unlawful Statements and publicizing the Defamatory Manifesto and Second Defamatory Manifesto through social media, including Twitter; and in publishing the Further Unlawful Stockhouse Statements, which publicized and disseminated the Defamatory Manifesto, Second Defamatory Manifesto and other Unlawful Statements. In addition, the Defendants threatened the release of two additional "Parts" to the Defamatory Manifesto. They have released one additional "Part", the Second Defamatory Manifesto, as well as the Additional Unlawful Posts about the Plaintiffs. This conduct has caused, is causing, and will continue to cause irreparable harm to the Plaintiffs' business and their reputations. This nonstop game of "whack-a-mole" cries out for a remedy.

151. Finally, the Defendants are liable for aggravated and punitive or exemplary damages. The Defendants maliciously and intentionally caused harm to the Plaintiffs through the repeated and coordinated and continuing publication, and broad online dissemination, of the Unlawful Statements. Further, Robert attempted to obtain significant payments and other benefits to purportedly assist Anson, which Anson refused. The Defendants knew, and in fact intended, that serious harm would result from their unlawful conduct.

152. The Defendants executed a coordinated, malicious campaign to spread lies about the Plaintiffs and damage their business, including attempting to reach the attention of securities regulators such as the OSC, the SEC, and IIROC. The Plaintiffs believe that the Defendants intended to cause them to become the subject of regulatory inquiries or investigations on the basis of these false and misleading allegations. Such inquiries or investigations would result in serious and irreparable reputational harm, and in addition would force the Plaintiffs to divert significant time, financial and other resources, and management attention, towards addressing any such inquiries or investigations. The Defendants also took steps to attract media attention to the Unlawful Statements in an attempt to further publicize them. The Defendants acted in a high-handed, malicious, arbitrary and/or highly reprehensible manner, as set above, which constitutes a marked departure from ordinary standards of decent behaviour. The Defendants' conduct requires the sanction of the Court.

153. The Plaintiffs propose that this action be tried at Toronto.

154. The Plaintiffs rely on the Libel and Slander Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. L.12 and the Courts of Justice Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. C.43, s. 101.

155. This pleading may be served outside of Ontario without a court order pursuant to Rules 17.02(g), (i) and (p) of the Rules of Civil Procedure because this proceeding relates to a claim or claims in respect of one or more torts committed in Ontario, seeks an injunction ordering a party to do or refrain from doing anything in Ontario, and is against one or more persons ordinarily resident or carrying on business in Ontario.

They've had a direct hand creating chaos within management decisions. Including the listing price. How so? Anson representative! #Potstocks

APPENDIX “C” – James Stafford

A. Stafford’s Background

1. In his capacity as a stock promoter, Stafford has been involved in numerous pump and dump securities schemes, including several of the companies mentioned in the Unlawful Statements. Stafford’s role in such schemes is to disseminate via the Internet sensationalist and misleading information regarding his clients (usually publicly traded issuers) with the intention of increasing – artificially and often temporarily – the trading volume and price of securities of the company. Those who sell shares in the company while the stock price is inflated – including proponents of the pump and dump scheme – enjoy significant profits, whereas unsophisticated investors (often retail investors) are habitually faced with significant losses when the share price declines back to its intrinsic value. This is also known as the “pump and dump”.

2. While Stafford’s articles on www.OilPrice.com purport to be – and are intentionally designed to appear as – objective news reports, they are promotional materials. Stafford is often directly paid for his articles on www.OilPrice.com in cash or shares by the companies whose securities he is promoting. As such, he often owns securities in the company at issue and is incentivized to increase both their trading price and volume. The disclaimers attached to the bottom of Stafford’s articles on www.OilPrice.com acknowledge this and specifically acknowledge the temporary effects of his pump and dump scheme.

3. The following is a typical example of the disclaimers attached to Stafford’s articles. It appeared at the bottom of an article titled “Is This The Hottest Oil Play Of The Year”, published January 14, 2021 regarding RECO. It acknowledges that Stafford and/or his companies were paid $70,000 to write a single article, and that they own shares in RECO:

OilPrice.com, Advanced Media Solutions Ltd., and their owners, managers, employees, and assigns (collectively the “Company”) have been paid by [RECO] seventy thousand U.S. dollars to write and disseminate this article. B. Stafford’s Animus Towards the Plaintiffs

4. Stafford was hired, directly and/or indirectly, to promote, and artificially inflate the volume and/or price of, Facedrive shares using his website, www.OilPrice.com. Since March 2020, Stafford and/or his companies have published over seventy sensationalist posts about Facedrive (a full list is set out in Section D of this Appendix), with titles including “Could This Be One Of The Best Ways To Play The EV Boom This Summer?”

and “The $110 Trillion Trend That Bezos, Buffett And Musk Are Betting On”. The public disclosure on www.OilPrice.com stated that:

- (a) Stafford and/or his companies “signed an agreement [with Facedrive] to be paid in shares to provide services to expand ridership and attract drivers in certain jurisdictions outside Canada and the United States” – although, in fact, Stafford and/or his companies was hired for stock promotion purposes;
- (b) Stafford “has acquired additional shares of FaceDrive...for personal investment” and that, as a result, Stafford and/or his companies have “a substantial incentive to see the featured company’s stock perform well”; and
- (c) www.OilPrice.com’s purported articles about Facedrive “should be viewed as a commercial advertisement only. We have not investigated the background of the featured company. Frequently companies profiled in our alerts experience a large increase in volume and share price during the course of investor awareness marketing, which often end as soon as the investor awareness marketing ceases” (emphasis added).

5. The www.OilPrice.com disclosure does not, on its own, identify how much Stafford was paid. Many readers of www.OilPrice.com, particularly unsophisticated ones, would not have realized that the website was hired to promote Facedrive stock, and was not providing objective news and analysis about the company.

6. In total, Stafford directly and indirectly, at one point in time, owned up to approximately 1.5 million shares in Facedrive, some of which he received as compensation for stock promotion, and some of which he purchased on the open market. As a result, Stafford had a significant incentive to ensure that Facedrive's share price appreciated and remained artificially inflated. One and a half million shares of Facedrive would have been worth approximately $90 million at Facedrive's all-time high share price of $60 and are worth approximately $3 million at the current share price of approximately $2 (assuming Stafford held his shares).

7. These incentives gave Stafford the impetus to engage in the Conspiracy and spread Unlawful Statements about the Plaintiffs. Given Stafford's financial interest in Facedrive, he has an incentive to diminish and disparage critical commentary about Facedrive, published by market participants or other observers, which questions the intrinsic value of the company. On July 23, 2020, Hindenburg Research published critical research findings about Facedrive. Later that evening, the first Unlawful Statements about the Plaintiffs were published on Stockhouse.

8. Part of Hindenburg Research's critical findings about Facedrive related to a firm named Medtronics Online Solutions Ltd. ("Medtronics"). Facedrive, a ride-share start-up, publicly claimed that it had hired Medtronics for the purpose of broadening its ridership. Hindenburg Research's critical findings included that Medtronics was controlled by Stafford; that Medtronics was in fact a shell company that obfuscated its true purpose; and that Stafford, via Medtronics, had actually been hired to promote Facedrive's stock, not broaden ridership. Pursuant to a consulting services agreement, Facedrive was to pay Medtronics 800,000 in shares for the alleged services through a monthly fee (worth roughly $8 million at the time the agreement was press released by Facedrive; see also Appendix “E”, paragraph 45 below, where Robert indicated that Stafford was paid $8 million to promote Facedrive). On September 9, 2020, Facedrive terminated the consulting services agreement and was of the opinion that the obligations under the agreement had been fulfilled. On November 27, 2020, the company disclosed a signed settlement agreement deeming its obligations fulfilled as of October 19, 2020. This all occurred a few months after the release of Hindenburg Research’s report regarding Facedrive, when a disagreement ended the relationship between Facedrive and Medtronic, although Medtronic still received all of its shares under the agreement. Had the consulting engagement continued, Stafford may have stood to receive more shares in Facedrive, increasing his compensation.

9. Stafford was also hired to promote, and artificially inflate the volume and/or price of, RECO’s shares. Since January 2020, Stafford and/or his companies have published over twenty sensationalist articles promoting RECO on www.OilPrice.com (a full list is set out in Section E of this Appendix), with titles including “Is This The Most Exciting Oil Stock For 2021?” and “Recon Africa: The Truth About The World’s Most Exciting Oil Play”. The disclosure on these articles indicates that Stafford was paid US$280,000 for a series of four articles in January 2021. All of the articles consistently disclosed that Stafford and/or his companies own shares in RECO and accordingly have a substantial incentive to see the share price perform well.

10. Stafford’s financial interest in RECO once again motivated him to spread Unlawful Statements about the Plaintiffs through the Conspiracy. On June 20, 2021, The Globe and Mail published a critical article about RECO. On June 24, 2021, Viceroy Research, another forensic research firm, expanded on The Globe and Mail's reporting and posted further critical findings about RECO. The critical findings included allegations that RECO had engaged in stock promotion and had other fundamental issues. The Second Defamatory Manifesto was published on June 28, 2021, a few days after Viceroy Research released its first report regarding RECO.

11. Given Stafford's significant financial interest and exposure to Facedrive and RECO, he publicly wrongfully used the Plaintiffs as scapegoats for their share prices declining, and in particular he blamed the Plaintiffs for the critical research findings about Facedrive and RECO. In fact, the share prices of overvalued companies decline not because of the Plaintiffs' influence, but rather because of market fundamentals, including poor performance, failures to meet the business plan, shareholder infighting, and/or corporate governance issues. Consistent with Stafford's incentives, the Unlawful Statements allege, among other things, that the Plaintiffs commissioned and paid for critical analyst and/or news reports about Facedrive and RECO based on fabricated information – both stocks that Stafford has a significant interest in inflating the value of and/or was hired to promote.

C. Stafford's Possible Location

12. Stafford's company, A Media Solutions Limited is connected with the address 4TA Priv Piedra Del Comal 21, Casa 2 col. Valle De Tepepan Tlalpan Distrito Federal Mexico, 14 646, which is near Mexico City. Stafford appears to have connections to numerous jurisdictions and it is unknown to the Plaintiffs whether Stafford's residential address is in Mexico, England, the Bahamas, or elsewhere. Some of the Unlawful Statements described in the statement of claim were published from the area surrounding Mexico City

(many from the city of Toluca) and multiple employees of www.OilPrice.com appear to be based in Mexico City or the surrounding areas.

APPENDIX “D” – Unlawful Stockhouse Statements

A. The July 23, 2020 Stockhouse Post

13. On July 23, 2020, Hindenburg Research published a critical report about Facedrive, a company whose stock Stafford was hired to promote.

14. Later that evening, Stafford and the other Defendants conspired to anonymously publish a post titled “The Real Story on Moez Kassam and Anson Funds – Part 1” on Stockhouse on July 23, 2020, under the pseudonym “JustinTime”:

The Real Story on Moez Kassam and Anson Funds – Part 1

15. The July 23 Stockhouse Post called Kassam a “criminal” and included statements accusing him of engaging in illegal, unethical, and “corrupt” business practices as well as egregious personal attacks, which were intended to damage his reputation and turn investors away from him. The accusations are false and defamatory.

16. The July 23 Stockhouse Post accused Kassam of being “corrupt and criminal” and asserted that his practices included “treading on people, lying and using every trick in the book to bring companies down that he bet against” (emphasis added below):

So here is the beginning part of the tale about the corrupt and criminal CIO at Anson funds?
A few short years ago Moez Kassam was a high flying star in the hedge fund space. He had $1 billion under management (now down to $250 million and falling) and was the praise of the financial community. But what people don't know is that his media praise was paid for (like when Toronto Life covered his wedding – paid for and made to look like an editorial - shame). But even worse he made his money the dirty way, treading on people, lying and using every trick in the book to bring companies down that he bet against. Whatever it took, whoever he ruined financially or reputation wise he would do it to turn a profit.

17. In particular, the July 23 Stockhouse Post discussed Anson's investment in the cannabis company Tilray Inc. ("Tilray"). The post falsely asserted that, during this period, Anson had "a large naked short position" which posed a "significant credit risk" to its creditors, and that Anson committed "numerous securit[ies] violations [in] ever f[l]avour imaginable" in order to protect its solvency.

18. The July 23 Stockhouse Post also falsely stated that Anson was "again caught naked" in relation to Facedrive, falsely implying that Anson's conduct was abusive or illegal and asking IIROC if it would be investigating "how Moez creates paper". Anson does not engage in naked short selling.

19. The July 23 Stockhouse Post stated that the Plaintiffs were "bad actors" who are "getting away with" "huge regulatory infringements", and that there were "zero repercussions for their illegal behaviour."

20. The July 23 Stockhouse Post claimed that further allegations of "corruption, lies and foul play" against the Plaintiffs were forthcoming, and concluded with, "Stay tuned especially IIROC, juicy bits coming for you folks."

21. Jacob, who maintains a Twitter account through an alter-ego named "John Murphy" with the username @JohnMur67039142, tweeted a link to the Stockhouse July Post on the day it was published.

The timing demonstrates insider knowledge that the July 23 Stockhouse Post was being published.

22. Shortly after the publication of the July 23 Stockhouse Post, “John Murphy” issued tweets alleging that the Plaintiffs had a short position in Facedrive and predicting that “much more will come out on this trade”. For example:

23. “John Murphy” included the Twitter accounts of The Globe and Mail and its reporter David Milstead, as well as BNN Bloomberg, in this tweet in order to draw these allegations to the media’s attention.

B. The August 14, 2020 Stockhouse Post

24. The Defendants conspired to publish a further defamatory and anonymous post on Stockhouse on August 14, 2020 titled “Moez Kassam and Anson Funds – Short $500 M and Lose It All” under the pseudonym “evtrader”:

Moez Kassam and Anson Funds - Short $500 M And Lose It All

25. This post was published using an IP address originating in Mexico City, where multiple www.OilPrice.com employees are located. It made similar allegations to the July 23 Stockhouse Post.

26. The August 14 Stockhouse Post continued the egregious and baseless personal attacks against Kassam, referring to him disparagingly as an “awful little grot” and falsely stating that the Plaintiffs “lost $500 million on a Tilray short”.

27. The August 14 Stockhouse Post also stated that “regulatory fire...will be coming [Kassam’s] way soon.” This was one of several attempts to draw regulatory attention to Anson, and falsely imply that the Plaintiffs were engaged in behavior that violated securities regulations.

28. Also on August 14, 2020, “John Murphy” retweeted the false claim that Anson was behind the report produced by Hindenburg Research (“Aphria Hindenburg Report”) regarding Aphria, a cannabis company, and predicted that the “story will be all over the streets within months”. This tweet included a photo of Kassam that later appeared in the Defamatory Manifesto, and also included the Twitter account of BNN Bloomberg to draw the allegations to its attention. The tweet read as follows:

29. The same day, “John Murphy” tweeted additional allegations that Kassam paid for critical reports regarding Facedrive, Aphria, Tilray and other stocks:

$FD #moezkassam paid for negative promotions on $FD [Facedrive Inc.] $apha [Aphria] $tly [Tilray] and many more. Was this disclosed by publisher? @AnsonGroupFunds @HindenburgRes @BNN Bloomberg @BettingBruiser $tly $apha $shortsellers @IIROCinfo

C. The August 17, 2020 Stockhouse Post

30. The Defendants conspired to continue their scheme to harm the Plaintiffs by anonymously publishing a post on Stockhouse on August 17, 2020 titled “The Real Story on what happened with Moez Kassam and Aphria”, under the pseudonym “Bundyj”. This post was published using an IP address originating in Toluca, a suburb of Mexico City, where www.OilPrice.com has multiple employees:

The Real story on what happened with Moez Kassam and Aphria

31. The August 17 Stockhouse Post alleged that Kassam is “a corporate sociopath of the worst kind...He talks the talk and worms his way into friendships that he fully plans to betray for a dollar at the first opportunity.”

32. The August 17 Stockhouse Post alleged that Anson had invested in Aphria, but that following Anson’s “failed short campaign against Tilray”, the Plaintiffs “became desperate” and “decided to betray [Kassam’s] friends and colleagues at Aphria.”

33. The August 17 Stockhouse Post falsely stated that the Plaintiffs commissioned the Aphria Hindenburg Report to publish negative material regarding Aphria, and that the Plaintiffs provided Anderson with “sensitive, insider information that [Kassam] obtained from his friendships with Aphria management and founders”.

34. The August 17 Stockhouse Post also falsely claimed that, shortly before the Aphria Hindenburg Report was released, the Plaintiffs took a short position in Aphria so that they could profit from the diminution of its stock price. Aphria’s stock fell following the release of the report, and the post claimed that, “to the outside world Kassam feigned shock...to avoid suspicion even though he had orchestrated the entire scheme and illegally fed Nate insider information.”

35. The August 17 Stockhouse Post implied Anson's conduct violated securities regulations by encouraging regulators to investigate the allegations it contained. It concluded by encouraging readers to "[c]opy and share as I'm sure Moez will try to have this post removed."

36. Shortly after the August 17 Stockhouse Post was published, Anson received an anonymous telephone call at its offices threatening harm to Anson and Kassam.

37. On August 21, 2020, Robert texted Spektor about Puri, commenting: "When I see Sunny...I'm punching his ticket...I've chased sunny now twice now...Ran like a bitch". In the same conversation, he implied that he could have physical harm done to Kassam: "I'm well connected also ... if I wanted someone to visit Moez I could [have] had it done already but just moved past it and it's his loss now".

D. The August 28, 2020 Stockhouse Post

38. The Defendants conspired to anonymously publish a post on Stockhouse on August 28, 2020 titled "Moez Kassam and Anson at it again – you guys got off lightly", under the pseudonym "stocknsyrup". This post was published using an IP address originating in Mexico City, where www.OilPrice.com has multiple employees (and in fact, the IP address that published this post is the same as the one that published the August 14 Stockhouse Post):

39. The August 28 Stockhouse Post alleged that Anson invested in Zenabis and appointed a “stooge”, Adam Spears, to Zenabis’ board. Among other things, it falsely and maliciously asserted that Anson used Spears to “convince...Zenabis to do all sorts of things that were hugely detrimental to the company and geared towards its destruction”.

40. The August 28 Stockhouse Post falsely stated that Spears was “feeding Kassam insider information so Kassam could better time the short sells and make even more money. YES, THIS IS ILLEGAL!”.

41. The August 28 Stockhouse Post asserted that the “coup de grace” for Zenabis was Kassam and Spears convincing it to pursue an initial public offering at an overvalued valuation so that, due to Anson’s short position, Kassam would have “a massive win” when Zenabis’ share price fell. It claimed that the Plaintiffs “made a fortune on this” scheme. The post falsely asserted that the Plaintiffs’ conduct “completely destroyed Zenabis and its shareholders, and it was illegal every step of the way”, and encouraged regulators to investigate.

APPENDIX “E” - The Defamatory Manifesto

A. Planning the Defamatory Manifesto

42. During meetings and/or conversations to plan the Defamatory Manifesto, Rudensky told Stafford and Robert the following, among other things, establishing that he was involved with the Defamatory Manifesto:

[Rudensky, Transcript #3]: ...But I've been on the street for 15 years and Moez seems like a guy who would have dinner with you and shake your hand and then screw you over and I don't get how he survives...

[Rudensky, Transcript #3]: ...I was a broker and G&P [i.e. Richardson GMP] for over 10 years [Rudensky worked at Richardson GMP from November 2009 until September 2015 when he left, as described in the statement of claim at paragraphs 17-18]...

[Rudensky, Transcript #3]: ...Nothing else from me right now. I think we are on the same page, this is reinforcing some of the stuff I've heard.

43. During other meetings and/or conversations to plan the Defamatory Manifesto, Robert and Stafford had, among other things, the following discussions as Stafford asked Robert to draft false and defamatory allegations against the Plaintiffs:

[Stafford, Transcript #4]: OK – so do you have any paper or anything? Everything you've given me is great for a story but it won't take [Kassam] down. So I need something...

[Stafford, Transcript #4]: ...Interesting, I like that, it's interesting. You know this better than me? Can you write out that whole process start to finish?

[Robert replies, Transcript #4]: Sure – I'll do that example. I can do it on Sunday but that is just one case in the US. ...

[Stafford, Transcript #4]: ...Ok – can you write something out....

44. During other meetings and/or conversations to plan the Defamatory Manifesto, including several of the meetings described herein, Stafford, Rudensky and/or Robert made, among others, the following statements as they sought to conspire against the Plaintiffs:

[Robert, Transcript #1]: ...The regulators are on to [Kassam] and I know the dirt but you'd have to offer something substantial for me to start digging into Moez. I hate the guy, but I'd have to go out of my way....

[Robert, Transcript #1]: ...We can hurt him [Kassam] with the regulators and definitely find more info on his funds and who he works with? I ran into Sunny Puri twice and nearly punched him out...

[Robert, Transcript #2]: ...I'll go through all of this with your investigator...

[Stafford, Transcript #3]: ...What if we were to put pressure on the banks and brokerages? Credit compliance etc. Then they would take a closer look at their [Anson's] operations...

[Stafford, Transcript #3]: ...If you were to do surveillance on him [Kassam], where would you look?...

[Stafford, Transcript #3]: ...We need to make him [Kassam] toxic to force the regulators...

[Rudensky, Transcript #3]: ...What we need to do is up the pressure on the brokers...

[Robert, Transcript #3]: ...I'm going to keep talking, but with COVID it's hard to bump into people. But the way we hurt this guy [Kassam] is by doing a report and getting the regulators to look at it...

45. During other meetings and/or conversations to plan the Defamatory Manifesto, including several of the meetings described herein, Robert implied that Stafford was paid by Facedrive and that Stafford had an animus against the Plaintiffs:

[Robert, Transcript #1]: ...So Moez was panicking and bringing up your name [Stafford] and oilprice and the fact you got $8 million to promote [Facedrive]. Which is a number I heard a long time ago...

[Robert, Transcript #3]: ...You have that with Facedrive, it hit 500 million and [Kassam] shorted it and you guys [Stafford and www.OilPrice.com] ran it to 1-2 billion...

46. During other meetings and/or conversations to plan the Defamatory Manifesto, including several of the meetings described herein, Robert and Stafford made, among other things, the following statements about Rudensky's employer Andy DeFrancesco:

[Stafford, Transcript #2]: ...Has [Kassam] screwed other people over apart from Andy?...

[Stafford, Transcript #3]: ...Is there anything we can do to help Andy or is he just screwed?...

[Robert, Transcript #3]: ...Everybody got mad and nobody wanted to touch Andy and it was all Moez...

47. During other meetings and/or conversations to plan the Defamatory Manifesto, including several of the meetings described herein, Robert claimed to have involvement behind critical research findings that were published about publicly traded companies:

[Robert, Transcript #1]: So here's my conundrum here. I do hate Moez but I am friends with Nate [Hindenburg Research] and I gave feedback on his [Facedrive] report and helped with it. I didn't know you at this time or who was on the other side of this trade...And I've helped Nate [Nathan Anderson of Hindenburg Research] on these reports before. So Andy called me last night and I couldn't say much because I didn't want to burn my relationship with Nate either...

[Robert, Transcript #1]: ...We [referring to Robert and Nathan Anderson of Hindenburg Research] did a short called Aphria with Andy...

B. Summary of the Defamatory Manifesto

48. From its first paragraph, the Defamatory Manifesto accuses the Plaintiffs of engaging in criminal and unethical conduct (emphasis added):

Never has there been a bigger scourge of the Canadian capital markets. Moez Kassam and his Anson Funds have systematically engaged in capital market crimes, including insider trading and fraud, to rob North American shareholders of countless millions. In his attempt to destroy small-cap Canadian companies through nefarious means, a string of feeder funds and untraceable payments to elude regulators, Moez Kassam has betrayed even his closest friends. Now, the other shoe is about to drop as Kassam's funds run out and a string of failed attempts at illegal destruction leave this naked short seller truly naked.

49. The Defamatory Manifesto labels Kassam the “Toad of Bay Street”, with a large photograph of a toad, and advises readers to “steer clear” from Kassam’s “illegal activities.”

50. The Defamatory Manifesto makes clear that its purpose is to paint Kassam as “the symbol of everything that is wrong with capital markets” and that with the “help” of “Kassam’s acquaintances [who] have flipped amid all the betrayal,” a “team of investigators is following all the threads of the questionable and illegal activities Kassam has pursued in an attempt to make money by destroying small companies and the lives of anyone who happened to get in his way: even those who helped him and ended up being disposable.”

51. The Defamatory Manifesto falsely implies that the Plaintiffs have violated securities regulations. It improperly and maliciously encourages regulators, such as the OSC, SEC and IIROC, to investigate the Plaintiffs and implores them to “Pay Close Attention” to “high-functioning sociopath” Kassam. It claims that Kassam is “pinging [the] regulatory radar quite loudly” and that, in addition to Canadian regulatory scrutiny, the Plaintiffs’

“[d]irty deals in the U.S. are going to haunt [Kassam] as well—and the SEC has razor-sharp teeth.”

52. The Defamatory Manifesto gives the false impression that the Plaintiffs were already under regulatory investigation. Later modified versions of the Defamatory Manifesto state at the outset: “IMPORTANT UPDATE: OSC and IIROC are now aware of Anson’s illegal market activities and are asking the public for information. The regulators need your help. If you have information for them or have been hurt because of their actions please get in touch... Do not be silent – help them clean up the capital markets”. This part of the Defamatory Manifesto includes a link to an OSC media release that has no known connection to Anson, in an attempt to lend further credibility to the false notion that the Plaintiffs are under investigation.

53. The Defamatory Manifesto implies falsely that the Plaintiffs engaged in “naked short selling” by stating that they were the “primary inspiration” of a forthcoming bill to prohibit “naked short selling in Canada.”

54. The Defamatory Manifesto calls the Plaintiffs’ fully legal short-selling strategy “illegal” and claims that Kassam has “lost friends...almost all of whom he betrayed in underhanded and illegal short-selling schemes, including the best man at his wedding whom he threw under a speeding short-selling bus”.

55. While this allegation is false, Robert is one of the few individuals who has information about the relationship between Kassam and his best man, Allen Spektor, who introduced Kassam to Robert. During meetings and/or conversations to plan the

Defamatory Manifesto, Robert told Stafford and Rudensky the following, among other things:

[Robert, transcript #3]: [Kassam] is a piece of shit. He befriends people, uses people. I just spoke to the best man [Allen Spektor] at his wedding and they don't talk about shorting anymore because he just feeds everyone shit. This is his best friend. They don't talk about short selling because it ruins the friendship...

[Robert, transcript #3]: He's a big guy, he [Allen Spektor] was his best man. And he [Spektor] introduced me to Moez a long time ago and promised me the world if I helped this guy, and none of them came true. This Alan [Spektor] guy has recommended so many people that Moez fucked over that he doesn't involve himself in the circle anymore. I gave him a hard time.

56. The Defamatory Manifesto claims that "Moez Kassam's MO" and the Plaintiffs' general investment strategy is to invest in small companies in need of cash to "buy influence"; purposefully place the company "into a vulnerable position" in order to drive down its share price; and then short-sell the company's shares "by a far greater amount" than their initial investment. It falsely asserts that "[p]rivate placement money coming from Moez Kassam is toxic money that comes with self-destructing strings attached."

57. Under the heading "How Moez Kassam Cheated Zenabis", the Defamatory Manifesto falsely accuses Kassam of engaging in a "game" in which he took a "visible long position" in Zenabis and a "much larger (10x) secret short position" to cause Zenabis' share price to go down. It falsely states that Kassam effectuated his scheme by placing "a figurehead as the director of [the] company" – Adam Spears – and convincing him to go public at "the highest possible valuation" to "set up a massive downside potential for Kassam to make a killing shorting" its shares. The Defamatory Manifesto also alleges falsely that Spears “fed” Kassam material non-public information that the Plaintiffs then leaked to the public, and which the Plaintiffs also used to time short sales advantageously. The Defamatory Manifesto claims that the Plaintiffs replaced Zenabis’ CEO after he discovered the “scheme”, and installed a new CEO whom they convinced “to dig his own grave” because they “were in control” of Zenabis “through their stooge, Adam Spears”. The Defamatory Manifesto asserts that the Plaintiffs’ “dirty short selling strategies” had “completely destroyed Zenabis, taking it from a $950-million market cap company all the way down to around $50 million over dinner and drinks.”

58. These are false allegations that Robert had previously made using the “Betting Bruiser” Twitter account, prior to the Defamatory Manifesto being published. These allegations were also included in the Unlawful Stockhouse Statements.

59. The Defamatory Manifesto continues with respect to Aphria. It falsely accuses Kassam of being “the mastermind” behind the Aphria Hindenburg Report by using Puri – who it says “makes bottom feeders look appealing” and did all the “dirty legwork”– to “illegally feed” its author Nate Anderson “sensitive, insider information that he obtained from his friendships with Aphria management and founders – sprinkled with exaggerated lies”. The Defamatory Manifesto asserts that the Plaintiffs were “a large holder of Aphria stock” and short sold shares immediately before release of the Aphria Hindenburg Report, which “irreparably damaged” and “crashed Aphria stock”. The Defamatory Manifesto claims that Kassam “betrayed” his “friends” and then “feigned shock...to avoid suspicion even though he had orchestrated the entire scheme and illegally fed Nate [Anderson of Hindenburg Research] insider information.”

60. The Unlawful Stockhouse Statements contained the same allegations regarding the Plaintiffs and Aphria, as did the “John Murphy” tweets from before the Defamatory Manifesto was published.

61. The Defamatory Manifesto falsely alleges that the Plaintiffs engaged in a similar scheme with Genius Brands International, Inc. (“Genius”), a children’s entertainment company. It falsely states that Plaintiffs engineered a “pump and dump” scheme whereby they raised Genius’ share price by commissioning favourable reports from “pumpers” on social media, and then took “significant short positions” immediately prior to the release of a negative report that they commissioned Nate Anderson of Hindenburg Research to write. The Defamatory Manifesto also falsely claims that Kassam had provided vetted “insider” information to Anderson to assist with writing that report. The Defamatory Manifesto’s allegations regarding Genius maliciously conclude by implying the Plaintiffs violated securities regulations: “The Toad of Bay Street—dipping his webbed feet precariously into SEC waters—rode [Genius] all the way up and then shorted it all the way down—disgusting.”

62. The Defamatory Manifesto falsely accuses the Plaintiffs of engaging in a similar illegal scheme with Facedrive, a company Stafford was paid to promote and of which he owned a significant number of shares. It falsely states that Plaintiffs took “a huge naked short” position in Facedrive, “panicked,” and in order to drive down its share price, commissioned Anderson of Hindenburg Research to publish a negative report regarding Facedrive. The Defamatory Manifesto claims, falsely, that Kassam told others about the report “days before it went out”, which it characterized as “insider trading”. The Defamatory Manifesto claims that the report “failed to generate the negative action [Kassam] needed to avoid losing what remains of his fund” and that he “lied to the banks” regarding his Facedrive investment. It warns that Facedrive should “be prepared for another assault out of desperation” because the Plaintiffs are “desperately trying to drive this stock lower”. It states that Plaintiffs would publish a further negative report from researcher “The Friendly Bear”, which the Defamatory Manifesto falsely states was a pseudonym for Kassam and Puri. It also alleges that the Plaintiffs’ banks were helping them with this “illegal” scheme. The Defamatory Manifesto alleges that Anson and Kassam were behind “The Friendly Bear” research report regarding Facedrive – an allegation that is clearly false since no such report exists.

63. As referenced herein, “John Murphy” had previously made similar false assertions about the Plaintiffs and Facedrive. “Betting Bruiser” had also previously tweeted the allegation that the Plaintiffs controlled the Friendly Bear, before the Defamatory Manifesto was published.

64. The Defamatory Manifesto falsely alleges that Tilray had “been the victim of an Anson Funds scheme (which failed)”, and that Anson’s “disastrous attempt to short much larger Tilray” caused “a liquidity crisis” for Anson, which lost hundreds of millions of dollars “in the scheme”. The Defamatory Manifesto further alleges that, having “lost around $80 million on this dodgy short strategy”, Kassam “nearly lost everything” and had to “grovel” to raise capital for Anson.

65. The Defamatory Manifesto falsely alleges that Anson underpays or “stiffs” people. Robert has made similar allegations that he was not compensated for past due diligence he shared with Anson using the “Betting Bruiser” Twitter account.

C. The Defendants' Attempt to Conceal their Identities and Disseminate the Defamatory Manifesto

66. The Defendants or their proxies communicated with the Bosnian developers using anonymous email addresses to conceal their identities, including from the developers themselves. The email addresses used by the Defendants were editormarketinvestigations@protonmail.ch and anesalic@protonmail.com. "Anes Alic", the name used in one of these email addresses, is a "journalist" for Stafford's website www.OilPrice.com, and the emails sent by anesalic@protonmail.com to the developers were sent either by Stafford or at his behest:

67. The Defendants provided the developers with the text of the Defamatory Manifesto, and the developers created the websites on which it was posted using WordPress. The Defendants paid the developers US$100 for this work. The Defendants instructed the developers to delete all of their email correspondence following the completion of this work in an attempt to conceal their identities (although the developers did not, in fact, delete all such emails).

68. Stafford and the other Defendants compiled a spreadsheet containing the names and email addresses of 2,854 journalists, news editors, and others in the business community to whom they planned to disseminate the Defamatory Manifesto. Stafford had these names and contact information in his purported capacity as a “journalist”. He and the other Defendants – seeking to imbue the Defamatory Manifesto with a false sense of credibility – intended that these journalists and news editors would re-publish the allegations against the Plaintiffs in their respective news outlets. The spreadsheet’s metadata indicates that the spreadsheet’s author was “James Stafford”, and that the spreadsheet was created on September 30, 2020 and last edited October 1, 2020 — just days after the Defamatory Manifesto was first published:

The second entry is for “Jim”, with the email address “james@floatingmix.com”, another email address associated with Stafford (and the domain “floatingmix.com” is registered to Advanced Media Solutions, the parent of www.OilPrice.com). The third and fourth entries are for “Jimbo” and “JS” at “capitalmarketsinvestigation@protonmail.com” and “info@stockmanipulators.com”. Both email addresses were used as “tiplines” for different versions of the Defamatory Manifesto:

D. The Unsolicited Emails

73. The Unsolicited Emails sharing the Defamatory Manifesto contained further Unlawful Statements against the Plaintiffs. One version of the email included the following (emphasis added):

This is a huge developing story on insider trading, market manipulation and fraud within America and Canada's capital markets that I thought you might be interested in.

Anson Funds and Moez Kassam have been destroying companies through illegal means and their partners are some of the largest banks in the world.

The below investigative report looks at which banks are involved and how the fraud has taken place. A lot of very powerful people are going to find themselves under fire....

From what I have been led to believe Anson Funds have sponsored a huge DDOS attack against the various sites that hosted the article and they have all gone down now.

The report obviously has these crooks very concerned and they are desperate no one reads the report. So we can now add cyber crimes to Anson's list of wrongs as well.

74. Another version of the Unsolicited Emails stated the following:

We have a new tip for you that involves the almost unbelievable activities of a hedge fund based in the U.S. and Canada that has broken countless laws and because of their actions have taken billions from ordinary investors and destroyed a huge number of companies.

Please take a moment to read this piece: [link to "MarketCrimes.to".]

You might have heard rumours about it – but it has been going up and down due to huge DDOS attacks from the hedge fund in question who do not want this information getting out.

A second part will be coming soon but this really is a story that needs to see the light of day and I'm hoping you can share this piece with as many people as possible.

75. These Unsolicited Emails were designed and intended to further harm the Plaintiffs and damage their reputation in the financial industry.

E. Further Attempts to Disseminate the Defamatory Manifesto on Twitter

76. On September 28, 2020 – the day after the Defamatory Manifesto was first published – Robert texted Spektor (the contact who introduced him to Anson) the following in reference to the Defamatory Manifesto (emphasis added):

I knew it was coming...

I know who wrote...

Moez likely going [to] sue

77. On September 29, 2020, “Betting Bruiser” tweeted a link to the Defamatory Manifesto, commenting:

78. On September 29, 2020, shortly after Anson was able to have the Defamatory Manifesto taken down from www.MoezKassam.com, Jacob quickly tweeted a new link to the Defamatory Manifesto on a different website, www.StockManipulators.com – again showing the Doxtators’ involvement in the Defamatory Manifesto. He again included the Twitter accounts of the Globe and Mail, and reporter David Milstead, in his tweet:

79. On September 29, 2020 “John Murphy” also tweeted:

big difference from shorting a fraud and paying for a short report calling a company a fraud to try and fix your trade. bad companies need to be taken down. big difference between the two. anson does both! [sic]

80. On September 30, 2020, Robert referenced the Defamatory Manifesto in a “Betting Bruiser” tweet to advance his allegation that he was unpaid for certain due diligence:

Something that was wrong about the Anson and Moez article circulating was the allegation that Moez/Anson compensates people to write reports. They just use people and don't pay anyone but themselves. $ZENA $APHA #PotStocks

81. On September 30, 2020, in response to an Anson press release denouncing the Unlawful Statements, “John Murphy” commented:

Anson and Moez put out this response. it fails to address the allegations outlined. when they question a company they ask for a line by line response. we are waiting @MunchingMoez ansonfunds.com/wp-content/upl... @QTRResearch @BettingBruiser @LamboJohnny @weedstreet420 @davidmilstead

82. During this time, “John Murphy” re-tweeted several tweets publishing links to the Defamatory Manifesto. He also re-tweeted several of Robert’s tweets about the Plaintiffs, as well as those of other Twitter users sharing and discussing the Defamatory Manifesto, reflecting the Defendants' concerted and coordinated effort to defame the Plaintiffs. He also repeated false allegations of a DDOS attack by Anson, in replying to a tweet by "Betting Bruiser" that contained a link to the Defamatory Manifesto with the following false allegation:

sounds like #moez attacked the site where the @AnsonGroupFunds report was profiled. a very expensive DDOS attack to prevent the public from seeing the piece. Investors in the fund probably have plenty of questions for @MunchingMoez @davidmilstead $apha $fd $gfl $shrm many more

F. "Betting Bruiser" Tweets

83. The tweets published by "Betting Bruiser" shortly after the Whatsapp exchange between Kassam and Robert included the following:

- (a) "One thing that was left out of the $ZENA [Zenabis] and Anson Funds report was [the] fact that Anson's funds legal counsel (Laura Salvatori) husband (Muneeb Yusuf) via Brownstone Advisors facilitated the toxic financing deal between $ZENA & $TLRY [Tilray] ... conflict of interest much? #Potstocks";
- (b) "Hi Laura [Salvatori, Anson's legal counsel] [Hand waving emoji] ... cause I know you follow every tweet I speak about Anson ... I thought I'd give you a shoutout! $ZENA $TLRY #PotStocks";
- (c) "If you r an Anson Funds investor ... be prepared to have your funds locked up b/c there is a lot [of] information floating out there that paints a picture of scams to benefit none other then [sic] Moez Kassam. $ZENA story is just one of hundreds were its [sic] alleged he broke the law. #PotStocks";

- (d) “Maybe I should speak to regulators about Anson Funds and collect the reward in 50 years Or should I just leak snippets of recorded conversations with Moez Kassam? Thoughts? #PotStocks”; and
- (e) “I think I’m going [to] release some of the recordings about Moez Kassam ... just interested how much money Anson pays Ben Axler from @sprucepointcap ... you care to comment Ben?”

84. The tweet described immediately above was accompanied by a purported transcript of a recent conversation between Kassam and Robert. In fact, the conversation that was transcribed occurred several years ago and the tweet was misleading. This was another attempt by Robert to deceive his Twitter followers and defame the Plaintiffs.

85. On October 9, 2020 — the Friday before Thanksgiving weekend — “Betting Bruiser” wished death on Kassam:

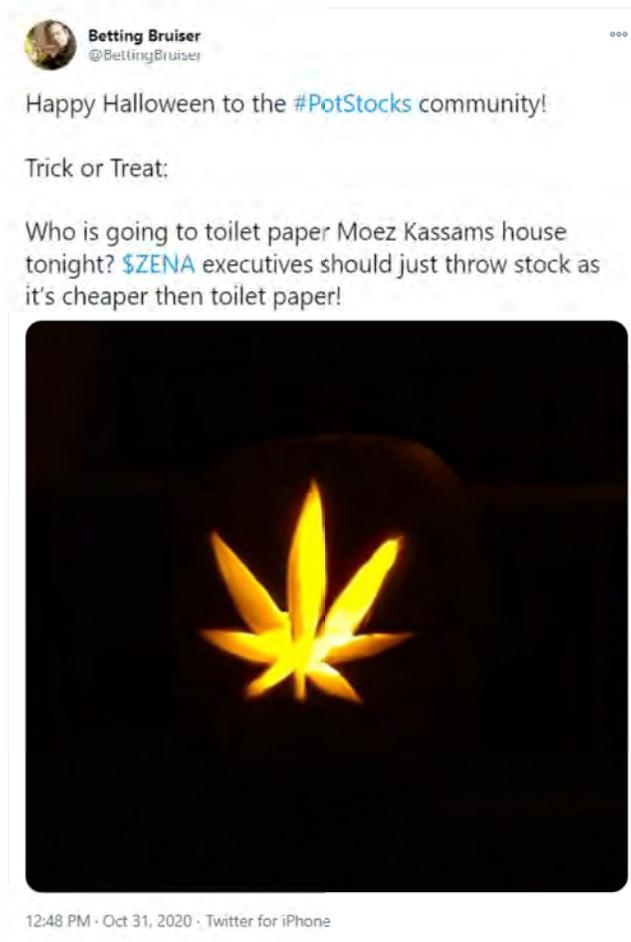

86. On October 29, 2020, shortly after the Defamatory Manifesto was republished on www.MarketCrimes.to, “John Murphy” tweeted a link to the new website, and included in the tweet the Twitter accounts of BNN Bloomberg and Jeff Kehoe, the Director of Enforcement for the OSC, to bring the Defamatory Manifesto to their attention and attempt to cause the maximum harm to the Plaintiffs.

87. On October 30, 2020, "Betting Bruiser" posted further Unlawful Statements regarding Anson and Kassam:

- (a) he posted a recording of part of a recent conversation between Robert and Kassam regarding the Conspiracy, with the following comment: "This is Moez Kassam from Anson Funds in the flesh running scared from recent reports about his tactics. Worth a listen. This guy is the scum of the earth"; and
- (b) "He doesn't have anyone but the scum Sunny Puri, the Globe & Mail and other short sellers doing his dirty work for him. Including paying @sprucepointcap @CitronResearch @FriendlyBearSA and others ... why did you block me Ben Adler ... is it the fact your Moez Kassam lapdog?"

88. On October 31, 2020, “Betting Bruiser” posted a tweet encouraging vandalism of Kassam’s house:

G. Messages Publicizing the Defamatory Manifesto

89. The Defendants and/or their proxies shared links to the Defamatory Manifesto on Yahoo Finance with the comments including the following:

- (a) a user named “America” commented, “Will the Canadian regulators do something? I cannot believe someone has been able to get away with this for so long”;

- (b) a user named “Antti” commented, “Canadian hedge fund under fire for illegal practices[.] Looks like Anson have managed to take those sites down – they don’t want the world to know about their crimes”;
- (c) a user named “Alissa” published several messages sharing the Defamatory Manifesto, commenting, “This is everything that’s wrong with the stock market... Looks like a big scandal might be unfolding”, “Have anyone else seen this??? Bomb report on Moez Kassam and Anson Funds. About time ... Clean up what’s truly dirty and rotten to the core” and “Interesting investigative piece looking at a short selling group that have scammed investors out of billions. It’s a must read”; and
- (d) a user named “Daniela” commented, “Seems like a scandal might be starting in the Canadian markets[.] Take a look at this article I found on another community about this hedge fund guy that has been running amok in the Canadian markets – crazy...”.

90. Posts published on Stockhouse in September and October 2020 included the following:

- (a) on September 29, 2020, a user named “KhalidZ” shared a link to the Defamatory Manifesto with comments almost identical to those of “Daniela”, described above: “A scandal might be starting to unfold in the Canadian market[.] Take a look at this article I found on another community about this hedge fund guy that has been running amok in the Canadian markets – crazy...”. This post published using the VPN “Digital Ocean”, a provider of personal VPN services; and

- (b) on October 1, 2020, a user named “HannaJensen” shared a link to the Defamatory Manifesto with comments identical to those published by “Alissa”, described above: “Interesting investigative piece looking at short selling group that have scammed investors out of billions”.

91. The Defendants or their proxies published Further Unlawful Stockhouse Statements in fall 2020, with headline tags including the following:

- (a) “Time’s Up”;
- (b) “Expose on Moez Kassam”;
- (c) “Tale of Corruption”;
- (d) “These short sellers soured the entire cannabis market”;
- (e) “Check out this piece on short selling bandits in Canada”; and
- (f) “A big scandal might be unfolding in Canadian markets.”

92. Many of these posts included links to the Defamatory Manifesto, and many of the Further Unlawful Stockhouse Statements posted in fall 2020 were published using the Digital Ocean VPN.

H. The Stafford Unlawful Stockhouse Statements

93. The Stafford Unlawful Stockhouse Statements, all published under the username “toffraffles”, were as follows. Many of them referred to Facedrive, one of the companies that Stafford was hired to promote and of which he owned a significant number of shares, as set out herein:

November 18, 2020	Edward is Upset Because Moez Kassam is Losing Money on FD	Poor Edwardoboo – he gets paid per post from Anson Funds and now his paymaster is losing money hand over fist with his Facedrive short. You referenced the Hindenberg report. This as everyone online knows was a paid for hit piece by Anson. Why don't you look at the report on Moez Kassam and Anson Funds that is going around the internet. Find out just who you are working for. Pure scum. Here's the link just in case you haven't read it: [link to Defamatory Manifesto]
November 19, 2020	RE: Watch the basher rhetoric increase....	Edwardoboo will be coming in hard with the bashing. Probably just got off the phone with Sunny and Moez. They will be upping his salary to $15 per post if he can create multiple bashing profiles. No sweeter taste than short sellers tears.
November 19, 2020	RE:RE:RE: Watch the basher rhetoric increase....	Here he is – Edward's back – yay. More half witted twaddle from the man who couldn't even get a job in a convenience store and instead has to try and pull down companies for the pennies Moez and Anson tosses him. This company is going places my old mucker. Does Microsoft partner with anyone on the street? No – they know what's happening here and so does the market. Your boss is on the wrong side of this one and is going to lose BIG

February 25, 2021	What an investigation into Facedrive and Shorts would find	Good post on Yahoo Finance – must read for all Facedrive investors: [link] As someone who has been in since the $10 range I love the shorts here saying they hope for an investigation. What they do not want is an investigation and neither do their partners in crime, TD Bank, CIBC, RBC. They have been facilitating Anson Funds illegal behaviour with spoofing, downticking and wash trading. They have been miss-marking tickets and hiding the true extent of the naked short position Anson Funds has in Facedrive. They have ruined the market through their illegal actions and any investigation WILL expose this. The banks will sweep this under the rug, cut Anson Funds off and try to get the regulators to move on to mask their continuous illegal behavior. Should the stock be here on fundamentals? No of course not – but Anson and the banks have broken the market and this is why we are seeing the big jumps in share price and I imagine we will see even bigger ones in future when they are forced to cover the bulk of their naked short. This will end very badly for the shorts and I for one welcome an investigation into this whole drama. the banks who will be exposed as Anson Funds are just a grubby little predator who spotted an opportunity and got caught. Now they can't get out of it and when the real buy ins happen this could be a textbook case for making naked short selling in Canada illegal with severe penalties

February 25, 2021	RE:RE:What an investigation into Facedrive and Shorts would find	you have probably it the right way and gotten the borrow. Anson absolutely have not. TD alone are north of 2 million shares naked short and RCB, TD Bank and others aren't far behind. If you play the game fairly like you have then that's all good – but these guys don't plair [sic] fairly which is the real problem. The real naked short is rumoured to be around 8 million shares which is utterly insane and proves the market or regulatory regime in Canada is utterly broken. I can see this being in textbooks in the future for what can happen when hedge funds are allowed to go naked short and it all goes horribly wrong. Another poster on here said that Anson are waiting for a huge lockup to come free trading in March and that insiders will be dumping their stock. What happens if insiders don't dump and instead hold their shares? Anson have been promising the banks they will. We will see but if Anson are wrong this could explode as the banks will not put up with their lies and stalling any longer as the numbers no longer make sense and force them to cover
February 25, 2021	RE:RE:RE:RE:RE: What an investigation into Facedrive and Shorts would find	you are cleay [sic] a paid Anson Funds stooge. He needs funds so Bloomberg put out that puff piece. They are going down
March 10, 2021	RE:RE:RE:RE:RE: Medtronics locking up Facedrive stock for another year	Very little short interest. Don't try and play us for mugs. Everyone on the street knows about the HUGE naked short Anson Funds and their syndicate have against Facedrive. It's the talk of Baystreet [sic]. This trade is going to go very badly for the naked shorts.
